

Become an Advocate for Quality Child Care

Parents can help raise the bar on quality child care by getting involved and letting local and national leaders know that quality child care is important to you and your community. Every voice counts. Join thousands of Child Care Resource and Referral programs, child care providers, and parents like you to make quality child care a reality for all families.

Click here for more information or to become a child care advocate.